Wander North India with India Someday

Day 1 – Day 3 – Mumbai

It all begins here in the city of dreams. The madness follows. Mumbai is the richest city in the country. It is home to Bollywood and twenty million other dreamers.

Our tour starts in Bombay with introductions, activities and exploring spread across the next two and a half days. You will explore the city with us; go on a slum tour and for those fascinated by Bollywood participate in a fun Bollywood dance workshop and participate in a game of cricket; A sport to the rest of the world, a religion to Indians.

Day 4 – Day 6 – Udaipur

Udaipur is a charming medieval city on the banks of Lake Pichola. Udaipur is a beautiful mix of lakes, rolling hill, lovely palaces and endearing locals..

Our time in Udaipur will be split between exploring the monuments by the lake and ones dotted across the city and a day in countryside when we will go on a light trek and experience rural India at close quarters.

Day 7 – Day 8 – Jodhpur

If any Indian monument will come close to (or perhaps exceed) the Taj Mahal in mesmerizing a traveller it would be the stunning Meherangarh Fort in Jodhpur. The crowning citadel of another lovely medieval town with endless narrow alleys and blue houses, where one would like to get lost!

In Jodhpur you'd spend a good few hours exploring the Fort, there's a lovely ziplining activity at the Fort. Explore other monuments across the town and just wander around the old town.

Day 9 – Pushkar

Pushkar is a town in the Ajmer district of Rajasthan, one of the oldest cities in India. A sacred site for Hindus and is a city rich in culture.

Built on the banks of the pristine lake Pushkar, a picturesque town with beautiful temples and a serene lake. Pushkar is a delightful place to explore on foot and to soak in both the spiritual and hippie vibe of the small town.

Day 10 – Day 11 – Jaipur

Jaipur is the capital and the largest city of Rajasthan. The pink city is both a visual and shopping delight.

Day 12 – Agra

Agra, the city itself usually does not delight travellers. The monuments i.e. Agra Fort, Fortress city of Fatehpur Sikri, Baby Taj and of course the Taj Mahal will leave you truly amazed

Day 13 – Day 14 – Delhi

We believe in ending with a bang, what's better than to finish in the capital? Places like India Gate and The Red fort are beautiful to visit also a visit to Connaught palace is also a refreshing experience and shows the youthful side of Delhi.
